

SORBY ADAMS

BAROSSA

2010 The Reverend Canon Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz

Named after my great uncle The Reverend Canon R.K. Sorby Adams OBE who was the Anglican Minister at St. Hugh's Church in my hown town of Angaston from 1956 – 1960.

Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz are the best of mates and perfectly suited to each other.

Brick red with rich, complex aromas spilling out of the glass. It really is the best of both worlds with the smells of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz meshing perfectly. Blackberry, cassis, plum and dark cherry are ably supported by hints of baking spice, licorice, chocolate and espresso.

Partner with lamb or venison.
